

Public Seminar 2015

“Both Sides (of the Pond) Now: Reflections on Competition Enforcement in the US and the EU”

Professor Stephen Calkins

Member of the Competition and Consumer Protection Commission;
Professor of Law, Wayne State University (on leave);
Adjunct Professor, UCD Sutherland School of Law

Tuesday, 28th April 2015, 3.15 PM
27 University Square, Room 101, QUB

Professor Stephen Calkins has devoted much of his career to enforcing, practicing, teaching, and lecturing and writing about competition and consumer law in the US and around the world. He is a former General Counsel of the US Federal Trade Commission (an independent competition agency) and was formerly of counsel to a global law firm. Since December 2011 he has served as a Member of Ireland's Competition and Consumer Protection Commission and its predecessor agency the Competition Authority (where he was also Director of the Mergers Division). In this special seminar, which is made open to the University community and selected others, he will reflect on comparisons between competition enforcement in the US and the EU.

ALL WELCOME
