Tuesday 19 September

Tuesday 16.00-18.00, Main Hall, Room: 6

Workshop Title: The Future of Archaeology in the Universities.
Organizer: John Collis

Thursday 21 September

Thursday morning, Main Hall Room: 5

Round Table Title: How Should We Conduct Ourselves? Dilemmas in Archaeological Ethics and Professional Conduct: A Roundtable Sponsored by the Register of Professional Archaeologists
Organizer: Jeffrey H. Altschul

Thursday morning, Main Hall Room: 7

Session Title: New advances in Central European Neolithic research
Organizers: Dani Hofmann, Penny Bickle

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

With or without a trace? A bio-archaeological view of the first farmers at Vedrovice
Alena Lukes (speaker), Paul Pettitt, Marek Zvelebil

A European-wide exchange of adze blades in Bandkeramik times?
Britta Ramminger

Not so different? Cemetery and settlement burials in the Lower Bavarian LBK
Dani Hofmann

Diverging trajectories? Forager-farmer interaction in two adjacent regions
Luc Amkreutz (speaker), Bart Vanmontfort
Frontier Settlements of the LBK in Central Belgium
Marc Lodewijckx

Reflections on the functions of pits and the spatial distribution of finds in the early Neolithic of northern France and Belgium
Lévana Boiron

Scene by the Brook: Early Neolithic landscape perspectives in the Paris Basin
Penny Bickle

The exploitation of animals in Villeneuve-Saint-Germain society at the end of the early Neolithic in the Paris basin
Lisandre Bedault

Thursday morning, Main Hall Room: 10

Session Title: Prehistoric Pedagogies? Approaches to teaching European prehistoric archaeology Organizers: Karina Croucher, Hannah Cobb

Papers

9.00-9.10 Setting the scene: Introduction to the session
Karina Croucher

Why study the art of Prehistoric Europe?
Thomas A Dowson

Telling a story: teaching the European Iron Age
John Collis

Sites in their setting, bones on a plate and learning to knap: theory and fieldwork the Palaeolithic way
Anthony Sinclair

Teaching European Prehistoric Archaeology in Belgium
Marc Lodewijckx

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Linking practice, fieldwork, and theory in the teaching of European prehistory
Timothy Darvill

Transition/Transformation: Exploring alternative excavation practices to transform student learning and development in the field
Hannah Cobb, Phil Richardson

The Virtual Walkabout approach to understanding prehistoric monuments and landscapes
Nick Thorpe
Articulating the bridge between theory and practice: a consideration of posters as genres of successful assessment in European Prehistory
Fay Stevens

12.30-14.00 Lunch

Thursday morning, Main Hall Room: 11

Session Title: ‘Salt of the Earth’, Salt Production and Beyond
Organizers: Sarah-Jane Hathaway, Mark Maltby

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction
Sun, Sea and Salt: An overview of Iron Age and Romano-British Coastal Salt Production (700BC-450AD) in England, UK
Sarah-Jane Hathaway

A saltern landscape: Romano-British salt production in the Somerset Levels
Richard Brunning

Salt and Bronze in the Transylvanian Late Bronze Age
Mihai Wittenberger

10.30-11.00 Coffee

The Environmental Impact of Iron Age Salt Production on the Landscape of the Seille Valley, Northeast France
Naomi Riddiford

Kill and Cure: Zooarchaeological Evidence for the Salting of Meat
Mark Maltby

Salt in the prehistoric diet and the possible misinterpretation of anomalous clay fragments excavated from a salt working site
Jacqui Wood

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

Thursday morning, Main Hall Room: 12

Session Title: The Materialities of Home
Organizers: Per Cornell, Tove Hjørungdal

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction
HOMEMAKING - Exploring the Materiality and Sociability of Home in Archaeology
Tove Hjørungdal

Home, Trauma and Conflict
Per Cornell

The Romans at Home
Troels Myrup Kristensen

There's no place like Home: Memory and identity at Home in late prehistoric southern Scotland
Olivia Lelong

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Home: blackhouses and landscapes of Ness, Lewis
Tessa Poller

Archaeology, poems and the Viking Age
Annika Larsson

Once upon a time and very far away …
On home and home-making in the writings of Hanna Rydh
Elisabeth Arwill-Nordbladh

The Materialities of Gumuz Home (Benishangul-Gumuz, West Ethiopia): an ethnoarchaeological approach
Alfredo González Ruibal, Xurxo M. Ayán Vila, Álvaro Falquina Aparicio

Per Cornell & Tove Hjørungdal (closing words)

12.30-14.00 Lunch

Thursday morning, Restaurant Room: A

Session Title: The Death of Archaeological Theory?

Organizers: John Bintliff, Mark Pearce
Discussant: Anthony Harding

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Why Archaeological ‘Theory’ Has Failed the Discipline
John Bintliff

The death of theory: the death of an abstraction
John Barrett
Why the death of theoretical archaeology is not a loss
Alexander Verpoorte

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Autopsy or biopsy? Meditations upon a theoretical culture
Geoff Carver

Theory in Central European Archaeology: Dead or Alive?
Alexander Gramsch

Have rumours of the ‘Death of Theory’ been exaggerated?
Mark Pearce

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

Thursday morning, Restaurant Room: B

Round Table Title: Connecting Archaeological Knowledge: The Build up of a Bibliography of European Prehistory

Organizer: Gerald Rühl

Thursday morning, Sports Hall Room: D

Round Table Title: Political Conflicts and Contemporary Archaeology

Organizer: Bożena Werbart

Thursday afternoon, Main Hall Room: 5

Session Title: Experimental Archaeology – goals & (im)possibilities

Organizers: Marianne Rasmussen (Chairman), M. Schmidt, R. P. Paardekooper

Papers

14.00-14.10 Introduction

Practicabilities of experiments in archaeology
Roeland Paardekooper

Proposed presentation: “Baking bread and grinding corn - publishing old experiments before making new”
Martin Schmidt

The science challenge of experimental archaeology
Elizabeth E. Peacock
Experimental reproduction of Solutrean technology based on refitting and technological analysis of Les Maîtreaux
Presented by Bruce Bradley
Thierry Aubry, Bruce Bradley, Miguel Almeida, Bertrand Walter, Maria João Neves, Jaques Pelegrin, Michel Lenoir, Marc Tiffagom, Michael Miller

15.30-16.00 Coffee

The Value of Experimental Archaeology for Reconstructing Ancient Seafaring
Timm Weski

Building Houses and Building Theories
Marianne Rasmussen

Principles for Experimental Textile Archaeology – Problems and Possibilities
Eva Andersson, Linda Mårtensson

Experiments in manufacturing decorated objects of the Maglemose period
Th. Terberger, P. Toft

Thursday afternoon, Main Hall Room: 7

Session Title: Archaeology in Europe: Global or Parochial?
Organizers: Claire Smith, Arkadiusz Marciniak

Papers

14.00-14.10 Introduction
Archaeology – Anthropology – History. Unconscious foundations and conscious expressions of social life
Stanisław Tabaczyński

Archaeologists. Who we are? From the Spanish ambiguity to the European convergence
Inés Domingo

Archaeology in Central Europe. Parochial or European?
Arkadiusz Marciniak

15.30-16.00 Coffee

Converging trends in Archaeological Resource Management in Europe
Willem Willems

Digging it up down under Claire Smith, Heather Burke

Impact of Globalization on the Heritage Management in Northwestern Thailand
Rasmi Shooongdej
Thursday afternoon, Main Hall Room: 10

Round Table Title: The European Lanscape Convention: Starting Action

Organizers: Nora Andrikopoulou-Strack, Felipe Criado, Graham Fairclough, Zbigniew Kobylański, Karsten Paludan-Müller, Tom Bloemers

Thursday afternoon, Main Hall Room: 11

Session Title: Rescue excavations in motorways, pipelines and other large infrastructure development projects

Organizer: Sławomir Kadrow

Papers

14.00-14.10 Introduction

Rescue archaeology in Romania - an overview (1991 - 2006)
Paul Damian, Corina Borș

Protection of archaeological monuments in the light of legislation past and present days
Lech Czerniak, Marek Gierlach

The national program of the protection of archaeological monuments within the investment of the construction of motorways guidelines, the range of the investment, organization, standards
Lech Czerniak, Rafał Maciszewski

Garden Archaeology
Brian Dix

15.30-16.00 Coffee

Early Neolithic Settlement Structures in the Light of Rescue Surveys of the A4 Motorway near Cracow
Sławomir Kadrow

Yamal – Europe Gas Pipeline organizational and research experiences
Michał Kobusiewicz

Importance of archaeology in restoration of historic parks and gardens based on research in Poland
Tadeusz Morysiński

Selected Aspects of Analyses of Settlements in the Light of Rescue Surveys of the A4 Motorway near Cracow
Ryszard Naglik

Roads, Rescue and Research: Highway to Hell or Stairway to Heaven?
Dáire O’Rourke

Life at the Nexus of the Wetlands and Coastal Prairie, Los Angeles, California
Richard Ciolek-Torrello, H. Altschul
Thursday afternoon, Main Hall Room: 12

Session Title: Knowledge, Belief and the Body

Organizers: Marie Louise Stig Sorensen, Katharina Rebay, Jessica Hughes

Papers

14.00-14.10 Introduction

A stable body: long-term traditions of self-knowledge in prehistoric Europe
John Robb

Changing beliefs in the Maltese Body 5000-1000 BC
Simon Stoddart, Caroline Malone

'Know Thyself' The inside story of the classical body
Jessica Hughes

Practices of burial in Pitten
Katharina Rebay

15.40-16.10 Coffee

Burials, funerary rites and beliefs in the Bronze Age of the NW Iberian Peninsula
Ana M. S. Bettencourt

Materialization and technological knowledge
Sheila Kohring

The language of craftsmanship
Harald B. Høgseth

Embodying Belief: Practice as a Form of Knowledge
Lise Bender Jørgensen

Bronze Age Potters, Potting and Performance
Sandy Budden, Joanna Sofaer

Concluding discussion
Marie Louise Stig Sorensen, Katharina Rebay, Jessica Hughes

Thursday afternoon, Restaurant Room: A

Round Table Title: Cold War heritage

Organizer: John Schofield
Thursday afternoon, Restaurant Room: B

Session Title: Living mobility - Crossing-border Archaeology in the modern world Organizers: Serena Sabatini, Anita Synnestvedt

Papers

14.00-14.10 Introduction
The cultural heritage site as a meeting point for multicultural interactions
Anita Synnestvedt
To be a world citizen in a local environment
Annika Bünz, Fanny Steen
Gendered travels in the Bronze Age and the present
Sophie Bergerbrant

15.30-16.00 Coffee

Local communities, spheres of mobility and the makings of archaeology
Per Cornell
Sailing along the edge of the world. Rock carving ships with sails and the question of long distance expeditions and crossing of cultural borders
Li Winter
Mobility, cultural diversity and archaeology
Serena Sabatini

Final Discussion: Stephani Koerner

Thursday afternoon, Sports Hall Room: D

Session Title: The "Closed Context" in Context III
Organizer: Constanze Witt

Papers

14.00-14.10 Introduction
Fossils, Time Capsules and Matrices Reconsidered: what we have asked, what role the closed context plays, and why it matters
Constanze Witt
Graves as Closed Contexts: Theory, Method and Beyond…
Philippe Della Casa
The Ghosts of Memory: How dead things continue to act through Time
Laurent Olivier

15.30-16.00 Coffee

Close your eyes and think of…
Geoff Carver

"Closed Context" and the Archaeological Record in Burials: The Evidence of Two Cases Distant in Time
Angel Fuentes, Antonel Jepur

Surfaces, "closed contexts" and the Harris Matrix
David Bibby

Thursday all day, Main Hall Room: 1

Session Title: Regional Analyses of Spatial and Social Dynamics

Organizers: Tina Thurston, Roderick Salisbury

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Putting Place on the Map
Matthew Fitzjohn

Two scales of sociality: The spread of rectangular dwellings in the forager Neolithic of Northern Europe
Andre Costopoulos, Samuel Vaneekhout

Spatial Analysis of Neolithic Circular Enclosures
Peter Biehl

10.30-11.00 Coffee

A Multi-Scalar Approach to Settlement Pattern Analysis: The Neolithic-Copper Age Transition on the Great Hungarian Plain
Attila Gyucha, William Parkinson

Transition and Tradition: Social Practice in the Hungarian Early Copper Age
Roderick Salisbury, Margaret Morris

Settlement and environment in the Late Copper Age along the southern shore of Lake Balaton
Szilvia Fábián, Gábor Serlegi

12.30-14.00 Lunch

Socio-political dynamics in later prehistoric Ireland: insights from the pollen record
Gill Plunkett
Land Tenure and Social Practices in later Prehistoric Oxfordshire
Patrick Daly

Imagining Danish prehistory through 50 years: methodological and paradigmatic transformations in regional and interregional archaeology
Tina Thurston, Mette Roesgaard Hansen, Joergen Westphal

15.30-16.00 Coffee

Reconstructing Shared Memory: Problems in Archaeological Analysis
Ezra Zubrow

Kimberly Kasper

Space in Archaeological Thought and the Nature of Theoretical Change
Benjamin Kamphaus

Thursday all day, Main Hall Room: 2

Session Title: Small World: A New Look at Figurines and Objects
Organizer: Dragos Gheorghiu
Discussant: Peter Biehl

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction
The surprising powers of miniaturisation: figurines, bonsai trees and Walt Disney
Douglass W Bailey

The clay people: proposal for an alternative interpretation
Marie Chantal Frere-Sautot

Figuring out Identity: Figurines and the Body in the Ancient Near East
Karina Croucher

On large and ambiguous Neolithic figurines from Northern Greece
Christina Marangou

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Size Matters: Contemplating “Performative” Aspects among Prehistoric Figurines of the Mediterranean
Lauren Talalay

Looking for Maleness in prehistoric figurines in SE Europe
Robin Hardie

On the side: Neolithic T-shaped and stalk-like figurines from the so-called ‘Zagros Group’
Aurelie Daems
Some views about the figurines of the Hamangia culture
George Neagu

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

The Figurines of the Serezliivka type of in the Late Eneolithic: A phenomenon of the Pontic steppe
Yuri Rassamakin

Early Olmec Figurines, 3000 B.P.
Ann Cyphers

15.30-16.00 Coffee

Prehistoric Ladies
Irena Kolistroska Nasteva

“The god from pouch”? (The anthropomorphic figurine from the Gnezdovo site)
Veronika Murasheva

Posters

The gestures of the Gumelnitza figurines
Valentina Mihaela Voinea

Thursday all day, Main Hall Room: 3

Session Title: Making a medieval town – continuity or new quality. Different patterns of early medieval European urbanization.

Organizer: Andrzej Buko, Maciej Trzeciecki, Aleksandra Rzeszotarska-Nowakiewicz

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Cracow in archeological researches
Kazimierz Radwański, Anna Tyniec-Kępińska
Changes in development of the Main Market Square in Kraków
Cezary Buśko

Urban Archaeology – a new approach
Andrzej Gołębnik

10.30-11.00 Coffee

The Northern Limit of Medieval Urbanism
Reidar Bertelsen

Early Urbanization in Norway
Petter B. Molaug

Carlisle, a town on the Anglo-Scottish frontier
Mike McCarthy

The urban question in Iberia during Visigothic Period
Lauro Enciso Olmo

12.30-14.00 Lunch

The City in al-Andalus and its Historical and Cultural Value
Antonio Malpica Cuello

The creation and extension of towns in the duchy of Normandy in the XI-XIIth centuries, town planning and hierarchy of towns
Bernard Gauthiez

Towns in Early Medieval Italy: new archaeological perspectives
Sauro Gelichi

The problems of beginning of mediaeval towns in the Northern Caucasus
Irina Arzhantseva, Svetlana Rusanova

15.30-16.00 Coffee

Changes in palaeodemography of Riga inhabitants in process of urbanization (14th - 18th centuries)
Gunita Zarina

From stronghold to town – the Polish case
Przemysław Urbańczyk

Viking Age emporia around the Baltic Sea – a cul de sac of the European urbanization?
Mateusz Bogucki

Kalisz as an example of development of the medieval centre in Poland
Tadeusz Baranowski
Thursday all day Main Hall, Room: 4

Session Title: Human impact on Lowland, Upland and Mountain Geosystems – Similiraties and Differences

Organisers: Tomasz Kalicki, Bartłomiej Sz. Szmoniewski

Papers:

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Dry feet: reported obstruction and sedimentation on a UK flood plain modelled as the effect of prehistoric riparian and cross-river activities
Brian Durham

Human impact on slope processes in NE Poland
Ewa Smolska, Piotr Szwarczewski

The Early Medieval hillforts and landscape in the basin of Neman (Belarus)
H. Siemanchuk, A. Siemanchuk

Palaeogeographical records of anthropogenic influence on lowland fluvial geosystems of western part of Belorussian Polesye: case studies from Tsna and Yasiolda river valleys
G. Calderoni, T. Kalicki, S. Savchik, G. Simakova

Influence of human activity and environmental changes on the Eneolithic geosystems of Black Sea coast: key study from Ostrov site (Romania)
Valentina Voinea

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Similarities and Differences of Geomorphic Features of Location of two prehistoric settlements in Lowland in Central Poland (Poster)
Piotr Kittel

Natural conditions of settlement in the valleys of rivers in central Poland against the background of the climatic changes in the Roman period and Early Middle Ages
Ewa Stupnicka, Tadeusz Baranowski, Witold Bender

Environmental determinants of the development of settlement in the Trzciniec cultural circle
Jacek Górski, Przemysław Makarowicz

From the Baltic coast to the Carpathian Foreland: differences of settlement patterns between the northern and southern peripheries of the Pomeranian culture in the Early Iron Age
Karol Dziegielewski

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

Diachronic Settlement Analyses in the Eastern Swabian Alb, South Germany, from the Neolithic until the La Tène Period
Claudia Pankau
Man and environment on the example of the Strzemieszyce Losien region S-Poland (Poster)
Tomasz Kalicki, Dariusz Rozmus, Bartłomiej Sz. Szmoniewski

Anthropogenic changes of valley geosystems: case studies from the Vistula river valley eastward of Cracow (southern Poland)  (Poster)
Tomasz Kalicki, Joanna Plit

Reaction of eastern Forecarpathian geosystems on climatic and anthropogenic changes: case studies of Raba valley
Tomasz Kalicki, Anna Budek

Record of human settlement and agriculture in mountain river alluvium (the case of the Upper San River alluvium in the Bieszczady Wysokie) (Poster)
Józef Kukulak

15.30-16.00 Coffee

Similarities and Differences in Exploiting Central and Outland Landscapes in Eastern Norway
Kathrine Stene

Revealing a Landscape “in between” the Archaeological study of a culturally Insular Region in Southeastern Germany
Matthew L. Murray

Coastal or mountainous environments: how prehistoric man selected his living sites. A case study from Greece
Maria Gkioni

The exploitation of wild reindeer in the South Norwegian mountains during the Iron Age and Medieval times
Svein Indrelid, Anne Karin Hufthammer

Charcoal Analysis from Neolithic Site of Moravany (Slovakia) (Poster)
M. Moskal, M. Lityńska-Zając, E. Badal

Thursday all day, Main Hall Room: 6

Session Title: Archaeological Information Systems in Europe and their impact on the management of the heritage

Organizers: Paul Gilman, Marie-Jeanne Ghenne

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

The Never-ending Story: archaeological archives and the race against technology
Katarzyna Bronk-Zaborowska

“Seek And You Will Find (Luke 11,9)”
Archaeological Inventories in the canton of Bern and other parts of Switzerland
Renate Ebersbach
The Central Archaeological Inventory of Flanders
Erwin Meylemans

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Where the needs meet - the archaeological heritage management and community planning in Finland
Vesa Laulumaa

Preparing for new heritage legislation in England: current work by national and local government to develop heritage information systems Stewart Bryant

Digital Heritage Monument Records – from planning to science and back
Markus Steffen, Sascha Schmidt

La Carte archéologique and heritage protection
Philippe Hannois

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

The archaeological map: the principle taken the other way round
Gertrude Blancquaert

Archaeological Information Systems: from the bottom up
Geoff Carver

Inter-linking Archaeological Archipelagos?
Experiences from conceptual modelling of archaeological data and processes
Keith May

15.30-16.00 Coffee

The Dutch Knowledge Infrastructure for Cultural Heritage (two papers) Hans de Haan Ronald Wiemer
Dutch National Service for the Archaeological Heritage
Ronald Wiemer, Hans de Haan

“Datascape”: The Historic Landscape and the character of information and knowledge
Graham Fairclough

The Planarch 2 Project and SMRs
Paul Gilman, Marie-Jeanne Ghenne, Casper Johnson

Thursday all day, Main Hall Room: 8

Session Title: Quantitative Archaeology and Advanced Archaeological Computing

Organizer: Benjamin Ducke
Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Classification of Archaeological Material Culture Using Fuzzy Logic
Sorin Hermon

Modelling the Effects and Testing the Potential Significance of Post-Depositional Transformations of Artifact Assemblages
Geoff Carver

Anatomy of a Semi-Digital Excavation
Paulina Suchowska, Benjamin Ducke

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Landscape Archaeology and Intra-Site Analysis in a 3D GIS
Undine Lieberwirth

Old Excavations and and New Technology in Romania
Alexandru Morintz

Standards for Archaeological Documentation
Franco Niccolucci, Andrea D’Andrea, Sorin Hermon, Achille Felicetti, Tomaso Zoppi, Giulia Marchese

W3C Standard Languages and Open Source Tools for Archaeological Data Management
Achille Felicetti, Franco Niccolucci, Andrea D'Andrea, Sorin Hermon

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

Agent-Based Modelling for Archaeology
Mark Lake, James Conolly

Digging Your Own Grave: generic skills from an archaeological simulation
Clive Orton

QuickBird Imagery and Surface Visibility in Intensive Surveys: an example from Antikythera
James Conolly

15.30-16.00 Coffee

Adaptive Sampling in Field Survey: a new approach and some preliminary results
Kris Lockyear, Clive Orton

Exploiting Scale and Spatial Dependence in Landscape Survey Datasets
Andrew Bevan

Archaeology as a Development Risk: how can statistics help to draw the line?
Philip Verhagen, René Isarin
Thursday all day, Main Hall Room: 9

Session Title: Animals and Alimentation: The Material Culture of Animals in Diet and Cuisine

Organizers: Krish Seetah, Aleksander Pluskowski, Sara Robinson

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Animals and the creation of monuments: new roles for cattle in the southern Neolithic of India
Stephanie Meece

Conquering gluttony: Dietary piety in the construction of Anglo-Saxon and Anglo-Norman identity
Naomi Sykes

From village to state: a dynamic modelling of food and culture at Anuradhapura, Sri Lanka
Ruth Young, Robin Coningham

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Icons for wealth, bird fibulae and falconry in Scandinavia
Kristina Jennbert

Animals as food; animals as the history of food in northern Apulia from Late Antiquity to the Early Middle Ages: the zooarchaeological evidence
Antonietta Buglione

Molluscan fauna from the archaeological site of “Tell Jenin” in the West Bank – Palestine
Ademar Ezzughayyar

The dietary contribution of cattle at the Eneolithic site of Vučedol (Croatia)
Tajana Trbojević Vukičević, Snježana Kužir, Krešimir Babić

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

Everyday and ritual food of Eurasian Steppe Bronze Age nomads (3000 BC)
Natalia Shishlina

Animals, alimentation and the cultural identities of the living and the dead in Roman Britain
Natalie C. C. White

An experimental butchering process of four specimens of wild rabbit (Oryctolagus cuniculus): methods, results and applications
Manuel Pérez Ripoll, Paula Jardón, Juan Vicente Morales Pérez

15.30-16.00 Coffee
Thursday all day, Restaurant Room: C

Session Title: ‘From microprobe to spatial analysis – Enclosed and buried surfaces as key sources in Archaeology and Pedology’

Organizers: Jörg Völkel, Matthias Leopold, Kai Fechner, Yannick Devos

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

FIRST SECTION: Multi-proxy methods for enclosed spaces, from Chalcolithic to Modern times

Methods and results of soil science applied to (proto)historical enclosed areas
Matthias Leopold, Jörg Völkel

Characterising archaeological occupation surfaces, boundaries and enclosed spaces through soil micromorphology
Helen Lewis

Interest of the archaeological study of «akkerbergs» for recognizing Early Medieval rural settlements in Lorraine (France, VIIIe-XXe centuries)
Jean-Marie Blaising, Franck Gérard

The application of phosphate cartography to the investigation of intra-site settlement space: the development of a research protocol
Devos Yannick, Kai Fechner, Jari Hinsch Mikkelsen, Jean-Louis Slachmuylder

10.30-11.00 Coffee

SECOND SECTION: Results for Bronze Age to Roman enclosures and houses

Synthetical results of a multi-proxy approach to protohistoric enclosures and houses between Rhine and Seine
Kai Fechner, Yannick Devos, Jari Hinsch Mikkelsen, Joseph Hus, Christian David

Ribemont-sur-Ancre. The specialisation of inner spaces in an enclosure with cultual character
Gerard Fercoq du Leslay

Confrontation of the archaeological and pedological approaches: an 1st-IVth century AD enclosure with agricultural vocation at the Chapelle Saint-Nicolas in Saint-Brice-sous-Forêt (Val-d’Oise, France)
Vanessa Rouppert, Jean-Yves Dufour, Kai Fechner
THIRD SECTION: Results and methods specific to Celtic enclosures

A qualitative and quantitative approach to the archaeological documentation of big scale excavations in Northern France. The contribution of spatial analysis and another view on the role and the characterisation of the protohistorical ‘Atrebati’ habitats

Gilles Prilaux, Alain Jacques

Past Landuse and Pedogenesis on eroded Landscapes in the Vicinity of the Celtic Square Enclosures of Sallach (Lower Bavaria, Germany)

Anja Hoffmann, Sabine Müller, Jörg Völkel

Methods of excavation and of analysis of La Tène farmsteads (the so-called «fermes Picardes»).

François Malrain

Peat, soils and sediments in the surroundings of the celtic square enclosure of Poign (Bavaria, Germany) – geoarchives for the reconstruction of human impact on the landscape

Alexandra Raab, Matthias Leopold, Jörg Völkel

Posters

Buried anthropic soils in the center of Brussels (Belgium): looking for fields in a proto-urban context

Yannick Devos, Luc Vrydaghs, Kai Fechner, Christine Laurent Ann Degraeve

Man-made «dark earth» and paleosurface horizons: an improved archaeological exploitation based on geophysical mapping and other soil approaches

Christian David, Kai Fechner

Phosphate mapping, magnetic susceptibility and other approaches to Neolithic to Roman (long)houses

Kai Fechner, Jozef Hus, Yannick Devos, Jari Hinsch Mikkelsen, Luc Vrydaghs, Jean-Louis Slachmuylder

Phosphorus-analyses in ancient settlements, sacred and funerary sites. Methods and combinations for the future

Kai Fechner, Yannick Devos, Jari Hinsch Mikkelsen, Christian David

Friday 22 September

Friday morning, Main Hall Room: 5

Session Title: Opening doors for Archaeologists: Making Malta Work

Organizers: Kenneth Aitchison, Mark Spanjer

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction
The Work of Making Malta
Willem Willems

The heroic myth of rescue archaeology and the realities of European archaeology today
Kenneth Aitchison

Archaeological Research and Commercial Archaeology
David Jennings

☕ 10.30-11.00 Coffee

Towards a wider ownership of the archaeological process
John Barrett

Bibracte: a Centre for European Archaeology and its ambitions
Vincent Guichard

The Application of the Malta Convention in Belgium
Marc Lodewijckx

Archaeological heritage in competition with economic and political interests: how can Valletta be made to work?
Anthony Harding

❌ 12.30-14.00 Lunch

Friday morning, Main Hall Room: 6

Round Table Title: Eco-Archaeology. A New Perspective to explore the technological changes of garbage

Organizers: Dimitriadis George, Gheorghiu Dragos

Friday morning, Main Hall Room: 10

Session Title: Crusade, Colonisation and Conversion: Material Traces at the Frontiers of Medieval Christendom

Organizer: Aleks Pluskowski
Moderator: Krish Seetah

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

The Impact of the Swedish Crusades on Finnish Society in the 12th and 13th centuries AD
Esa Mikkola
Who lived where? On the inhabitants of post-conquest town and castle of Viljandi, South Estonia, and of the surrounding territories (13th century)
Arvi Haak

The Archaeological Traces of the Teutonic Order’s Conquest of Prussia. The Example of the Tribal Land of Barthia
Tomasz Nowakiewicz

Teutonic Knights and Animal Exploitation: preliminary work from Malbork Castle, Poland
Mark Maltby

Coffee 10.30-11.00

Montfort Castle Project
Adrian Boas

Teutonic Castles in the Kingdom of Jerusalem
Rabia Khamese

Astronomical Orientations of Romanesque Churches in Slovenia
Saša Čaval

“Ecological Imperialism?” Investigating the Environmental Impact of Crusading and Colonisation at the Frontiers of Medieval Europe
Aleks Pluskowski

Lunch 12.30-14.00

Friday morning, Main Hall Room: 11

Session Title: ’Going Underground: The Public Wants the Public Gents’

Organisers: Sarah McCarthy, Kalliopi Vacharopoulou

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Getting to the Hart of the Mater: How and what do People really feel about Archaeology?
Sarah McCarthy

Conflicts in Public Archaeology: Then, Now, Why & How Helene McNeill

‘But I Want Nothing This Society’s Got.’ Who Buys the Past at Tintagel
Hilary Orange

‘Exploring Archaeology’: Commemorating the Dead Through Public Archaeology
Howard Williams, Sean Hawken, Elizabeth Williams
10.30-11.00 Coffee

The Public Wants What the Public Gets but What Happens When the Public Actually Gets What It Wants?
Caroline Sandes

The Public Perception of Preservation and Presentation of Ancient Monuments in the Mediterranean – Is There such a Thing?
Kalliopi Vacharopoulou

Conflicts in the Contemporary use of Archaeological Sites: Examples from Greece
Georgios Alexopoulos

Seeing Archaeology from a Different Angle: an Editor’s Perspective on Understanding Audiences
Diane Scherzler

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

Friday morning, Main Hall Room: 12

Session Title: Large burial mounds and the emerging of social power

Organizers: Leszek Słupecki, Ladislav Smejda
Chair: Henrik Thrane

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

The kurgan mound as a sign of memory, identity and power in the Iron Age Siberian societies
Natalia Berseneva

Early medieval magnificent burials in Pomerania – context and interpretation
Felix Biermann

The Big Princely Mounds in Russia: History and Archaeology
Vladimir Ja. Petrukhin

The Great Barrows from Pidhirci in western Ukraine
Radosław Liwoch

10.30-11.00 Coffee

The emergence and purpose of large burial mounds from the 6th to 11th century middle Sweden
John Ljungkvist

“Royal” mounds and boat graves: the notion of stirps regia in Migration and Merovingian Period Scandinavia
Svante Norr

Cosmic symbolism at pre-Christian Scandinavian cult sites – with particular references to Uppsala
Olof Sundqvist
Great mounds in Medieval Scandinavian Literature
Rudolf Simek

Tradition of earthen mounds in the Kraków region
Jacek Górski, Ewa Kubica-Kabacińska

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

Friday morning, Restaurant Room: C

Session Title: Histories of Archaeology: who, what, why, and how have we excavated, written and divulged?
Organizers: Ana Cristina Martins, Koji Mizoguchi

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction
Archaeology and the building of national Identity: the origins of French archaeology between historical and anthropological discourses
Laurent Olivier

Were pictures needed? The Battle to stratify and re-structure the pre-Roman Britons 1800-1900
Stephen Briggs

The prehistoric «lieux de mémoire» in the context of the affirmation of Portuguese identity in the early 20th century
Ana Cristina Martins

Modern motives: Japanese archaeology and fin-de-siecle European imaginings
Simon Kaner

10.30-11.00 Coffee

A brief history of Japanese prehistoric studies from 1970s: history of the acceptance of theory from abroad
Takeshi Ishikawa

Reflexions: towards an archaeology of the history of archaeology
Geoff Carver

Theorising the history of contemporary archaeological theory
Koji Mizoguchi

12.30 -14.00 Lunch
Friday morning, Sports Hall Room: D

Session Title: Forest architecture: Traditions of timber building in Europe

Organizers: Kenneth Brophy, Gordon Noble

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Holocene Woodlands, Phenomenology and Plausibility
Nicki J. Whitehouse, David N. Smith

The house that Jack built: archaeological discourse, timber halls and the construction of Neolithic narratives in south-west Scotland
Phil Richardson

From big houses to cult houses: early Neolithic timber halls in Scotland
Kenneth Brophy

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Turf- the missing component
Roy Loveday

Barrow building and forest exploitation in the Earlier Neolithic of Denmark 4000-3500 BC
Gordon Noble

Forest, Fire, Farm
Gavin MacGregor

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

Friday afternoon, Main Hall Room: 5

Session Title: The North Atlantic as an archaeological region

Organizers: Przemysław Urbańczyk, Orri Vésteinsson

Papers

14.00-14.10 Introduction

Exploring Isle Saint-Jean: The First European Settlements on Prince Edward Island, Canada
Rob Ferguson

The topography of Iron age burials in Iceland
Adolf Friðriksson
Kings and townspeople in early Bergen, Norway
Gitte Hansen

A Viking age shieling in highland E-Iceland
Karen Milek, Gárðar Guðmundsson, Gavin Lucas

15.30-16.00 Coffee

Placing a medieval seasonal trading site into a regional and international context
Howell M. Roberts, Ramona Harrison

Contrasting Lives: An analysis of the combs and pins from Bornais, Scotland
Niall Sharples

The church in the North Atlantic
Orri Vésteinsson

“Leif Eriksson Slept Here:” Situating L’Anse aux Meadows in the Vinland Sagas
Birgitta Wallace

Posters

Norse subsistence on the island of Sandoy, Faroe Islands
Seth D. Brewington

The Bishop’s cows
George Hambrecht

Coastal Finds: The analysis of faunal remains from NW Iceland
Yekaterina Krivogorskaya

Fresh fish & monks: A high status inland monastery in Late Medieval Iceland
Albina Hulda Pálsdóttir

Friday afternoon, Main Hall Room: 6

Session Title: Beyond gender – on the importance of a ‘gay’ rather than a ‘grey’ past

Organizers: Tove Stjärna, Lotta Fernstål

Papers

14.00-14.10 Introduction

Technological transformations and embodied engagements: A queer approach to the interpretation of prehistoric personal identity
Hannah Cobb

Queering bodies, boundaries and surfaces: art, animals and the Neolithic
Oliver Harris, Michał Pawleta

Queer perspectives?
Karina Croucher
Taming bodies and transforming being in the Formative period of northwestern Argentina
Benjamin Alberti

15.30-16.00 Coffee

Queer Vikings?
Live Norderval Waldersloev

Searching for Camp and missing the evidence? Promises and pitfalls of Queer Viking Age archaeology
Bo Jensen

Beyond shamans and transvestites? The elusive materiality of queer archaeology
Alexander Andreeff

Ancient DNA and Postmodern Kinship: Keeping Sight of the Forest amidst the Family Trees
William J. Meyer

Products of our own imagination: queering the (pseudo)science of human origins
Thomas A Dowson

Friday afternoon, Main Hall Room: 10

Session Title: Processing and analysis of larger amounts of pottery from closed contexts. The use and limits of different statistic methods

Organizers: Barbara Horejs, Reinhard Jung, Peter Pavúk

Papers

14.00-14.10 Introduction

Possibilities and Limitations in Analysing Ceramic wares
Barbara Horejs

Cooking pottery in the Aegean – an attempt of methodological approach
Bartłomiej Lis

Post-medieval pottery as an indicator of function and wealth
Marianna Niukkanen

The origin of the Early Bronze Age ceramic of the Volga-Ural region
Oleg D. Mochalov

15.30-16.00 Coffee

Classification, Counting and Publication of Aegean Painted Pottery around the Mediterranean
Reinhard Jung

Processing and analysis of ceramic finds at the Egyptian site of Tell el-Daba
Bettina Bader
The quantification of amphorae from Roman Sagalassos, Turkey
Markku Corremans

Standardizing variability: approaches to quantities of pottery from Roman sites
Robin P. Symonds

Pottery processing at Troy. Typology, Stratigraphy and Correspondence Analysis: how they work together
Peter Pavúk

Cognitive Theory of Prototypes and Categorization in Pottery Studies. The Analysis based on Cypriot Lagynoi Samples
Sebastian Borowicz

Friday afternoon, Main Hall Room: 11

Session Title: Departure from the homeland: Indo-Europeans and archaeology Organizers: Marc Vander Linden, Karlene Jones-Bley

Papers

14.00-14.10 Introduction

Indo-European Archaeology – What it is, and why it is important
Karlene Jones-Bley

Indo-European without Indo-Europeans: Prehistoric Europe as a Culture Area
John Robb

The dutch group - IE *tewtā. The evolution of ethnic groups in north-western Europe
Raimund Karl

Word and figure: a lucky combination on the Valcamonica rocks for the study of Pre-Christian symbolism and religion
Adolfo Zavaroni

15.30-16.00 Coffee

Language and institutions: the role of the Divine Twins, and the journey of the sun
Kristian Kristiansen

Bodily attributes and semantic expressions: knees in rock art and Indo-European symbolism
Åsa Fredell, Marco V. Garcia Quintela

Reconstructing and recognizing a prehistoric thunder god
David Steel

Drinking from the horn of plenty: on the use of historical data for prehistoric analogical reasoning
Marc Vander Linden

The Costume of Iranian Peoples of Classical Antiquity and the Homeland of Indo-Iranians
Sergey Yatsenko
Friday afternoon, Main Hall Room: 12

Session Title: Decoding deposition. Intra-site spatial analyses

Organizers: Petr Kvétina, Imogen Wood

Papers

14.00-14.10 Introduction

The complex intra-site analysis of Upperpalaeolithic site Kamennaya Balka II
Ekaterina Vinogradova

Decoding deposition, multi-level analysis of deposition trends within prehistoric ceramic assemblages
Imogen Wood

‘Ritual’ and ‘domestic’: interpreting the social importance of complex pit deposition using GIS and spatial modelling techniques
Ben Edwards

Neolithic Settlement and Refuse Management
Petr Kvétina

15.30-16.00 Coffee

Where did they fire pottery? Spatial analysis of the Late Bronze Age settlement in Turnov-Maskovy zahrady site, Czech Republic.
Richard Ther

The Archaeobotany of the Late Bronze Age Settlement at Prague-Hostivar, Czech Republic.
Petr Kocar, Ladislav Smejda

Some remarks on intra-site analyses in SW Poland
Justyna Baron

Cultural interactions in the Iron Age Trans-Urals
Sofya Panteleyeva

Early Medieval castle of Libice on digital map (Czech Republic)
Jan Marik

Decoding a palimpsest: the bandceramic settlement of Hanau Klein Auheim
Ulrike Sommer

Friday afternoon, Restaurant Room: A

Session Title: Object Re-Fitting Studies - Beyond Châines Opératoires To Social Interpretations

Organizers: John Chapman, Bisserka Gaydarska
Papers

14.00-14.10 Introduction: what can re-fitting studies tell us

J. Chapman, B. Gaydarska

Changing land-use signatures in Middle Pleistocene Europe: some results from refitting at Boxgrove

M. Pope

Refitting: micro-space, micro-time and micro-history of the Solutrean occupations of Les Maîtres

M. Almeida, T. Aubry, M.J. Neves, B. Walter

From reconstructed lithic production sequences to the social group in a Late Magdalenian settlement

F. Audouze

Megalithic technology in western France. The mental refitting of the core-outcrop

E. Mens

🔗 15.30-16.00 Coffee

Re-fitting pits and the dynamics of Neolithic occupation in Eastern England

D. Garrow, M. Knight, E. Beadsmoore

Pottery fragmentation at two Neolithic sites in northern Italy: Fimon and Rivoli

M. Dalla Riva, L. Barfield

‘Off with their head!’ Figurine re-fitting in the Balkan Chalcolithic

B. Gaydarska

‘The show goes on!’: enchainment and the persistence of materiality in marine shells in Neolithic Greece

J. Chapman

Refitting repasts: a spatial exploration of food processing, sharing, cooking and disposal at the Dunefield Midden campsite, South Africa

Brian A. Stewart

Friday afternoon, Restaurant Room: B

Round Table Title: Ceramic Production Centres in Europe

Organizers: Derek Hall, Marta Caroscio, Maciej Trzeciecki

Friday afternoon, Restaurant Room: C

Round Table Title: Transnational Archaeology

Organizers: Kenneth Aitchison, Gerhard Ermischer
Friday afternoon, Sports Hall Room: D

Session Title: Future Climate Change and its Implications for Archaeological Landscapes and Cultural Resource Management

Organizers: Andy J. Howard, Keith Challis, Mark Kincey, David G. Passmore

Papers

14.00-14.10 Introduction

Evaluating current models of climate change
Stefan Harrison

Fluvial archives, Holocene climate change and archaeological resource management in Northern England
David Passmore, Clive Waddington, Tim Van der Schriek, Andy Moores

Modelling the archaeological implications of future climate change using a Geographic Information System: a case study from midland Britain
Mark Kincey, Keith Challis, Andy Howard

15.30-16.00 Coffee

World Heritage Sites and Climate Change – Developing Indicators for Change
Rob Woodside

Water-Household, Future Climate Change and the Physical Preservation of the Archaeological Sites
Martine van den Berg, Henk Kars, Hans Huisman, Robert van Heeringen

Accelerated Late-Holocene alluviation of a small river valley; geoarchaeological investigation of the Frome catchment, UK
A. G. Brown, C. J. Carey

Translating the correlation of climate-human relationship in Southern Balkan Peninsula. Can past foresee the future?
Maria Gkioni, Maria Geraga, George Ferentinos

Friday all day, Main Hall Room: 1

Session Title: The Materiality of Death – Bodies, Burials, Beliefs

Organizers: Fredrik Fahlander, Terje Oestigaard
Discussant: Per Cornell

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Flesh and bone: material strategies during the 4th to 2nd millennia BC in Scotland
Gavin MacGregor, Paul Duffy
Religious Symbolism And The Use Of Gold In Burial Contexts In The Late Middle Helladic And Early Mycenaean Period
Helène Whittaker von Hofsten

You only die twice. The social life of dead bodies
Fredrik Fahlander

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Excavating the kings’ bones: the materiality of death in practice and ethics today
Terje Oestgaard, Anders Kaliff

Ritual and remembrance at Archaic Crustumerium – the excavations of Cisterna Grande (Rome, Italy)
Ulla Rajala

From Corpse to Ancestor: The Role of Tombside Dining in the Transformation of the Body in Ancient Rome
Regina Gee

12.30-14.00 Lunch

Aesthetics and Performance: the uses of objects and bodies in graves of the Egyptian Predynastic period (4th Millennium BC)
Alice Stevenson

Death and the body in the Ancient Near East
Karina Croucher

Cremation cemeteries under level ground - monuments over the ancestors and the collective memory
Anna M. A. Wickholm

Stones and bones. The myth of Ymer and mortuary practises
Christina Lindgren

15.30-16.00 Coffee

The usage of the ochre in the East Baltic Stone Age burials
Ilgia Zagorska

Live and death in the Bronze Age of the NW of Iberian Peninsula
Ana M. S. Bettencourt

A road to the other side/The road for the Viking’s soul
Ake Johansson, Camilla Grön

Friday all day, Main Hall Room: 2

Session Title: The Baden Culture and the Outside World

Organizers: Martin Furholt, Marzena Szmyt, Albert Zastawny
Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Problems in the Archaeological Legacy: The TRB/Lengyel-Baden Conundrum
Maximilian O. Baldia

Phenomena of Religious Life of the Baden Culture and their Social Background at the Central Danube Region
Anna Endrödi

The Boleráz - Style in the Context of supra-regional interaction in Late Neolithic time
Martin Furholt

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Late Copper Age settlement of Ecser (County Pest, Hungary): Archaeological and enviromental archaeological investigation
Katalin Herbich, Pál Sümegi, Róbert Patay

Balatonőszöd - an irregular Baden settlement in Hungary
Tünde Horváth

Anthropological analysis of the Baden Culture
Kitti Köhler

Mapping of the late neolithic Cultural Groups in Austria
Christian Mayer

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

The most Badenian flint. The Jurassic flint of variant G and its role in the late Neolithic of central Europe (3100 - 2300 BC)
Andrzej Pelisiak

Settlement and economy of Funnel Beaker-Baden society in Kujavia and Gostynin Lake District
Małgorzata Rybicka

Baden Cultural Identities? Late Copper Age Funerals reviewed
Claudia Sachße

The Baden and the Globular Amphora cultures: interactions and more?
Marzena Szmyt

15.30-16.00 Coffee

Isolated grave of the Baden culture from the Polish Beskidy Mts.
Pawel Valde-Nowak

Jevišovice Culture in Slovakia
Jana Šuteková
Baden culture influences east of the Carpathian Mts.
M. Yu. Videiko

The Funnel Beaker/Baden settlement in Little Poland
Albert Zastawny

Friday all day, Main Hall Room: 4

Session Title: Skull Collection, Modification, and Decoration
Organizer: Michelle Bonogofsky

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Europe

Stephany Leach

Ancestors or Enemies? Bronze Age Skull Manipulation and Funerary Effigies from Southeastern Europe
Petya Hristova

Headhunting and Social Power in the European Iron Age
Ian Armit

Getting A-Head in Early Medieval Europe
Howard Williams

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Kings, Saints and Criminals: The Removal and Display of Heads in Later Anglo-Saxon England
Jo Buckberry

Skull Relics and Skull Symbolism in Late Medieval and Post-Medieval Central Europe
Estella Weiss-Krejci

Eurasia

Skull Deformation in the Context of Visual Symbolism
Svetlana Sharapova

Human Skulls in the Ritual Practice of the Okunev Culture
Elena Miklashevich

12.30-14.00 Lunch
Middle East

The “Skull Cult” and the Hoarding, Decoration and Deposition of Animal and Human Skulls at Neolithic Çatalhöyük
Stephanie Meece

Oceania

The Dental Aging of an Overmodeled Skull from the Sepik River Valley
Jeremy Graham

Melanesian Modeled Skulls and Mortuary Ritual
Michelle Bonogofsky

What Lies Beneath: Unmasking a “Trophy” Skull Without Removing the Mask
Monica Faraldo, Linda Taylor

15.30-16.00 Coffee

New World

Bone Modifications Related to Decapitation Sacrifice in Mesoamerica: Burial 4 of the Moon Pyramid at Teotihuacan, Mexico
Grégory Pereira, Michael Spence, Saburo Sugiyama

Investigating the Origins of Nasca Trophy Heads Using Ancient DNA Analysis
Kathleen Forgey

Friday all day, Main Hall Room: 7

Session Title: Defence Structures from Central Europe to the Aegean in the 3rd and 2nd millennia BC

Organizers: Josef Batora, Janusz Czebreszuk, Sławomir Kadrow, Johannes Müller, Knut Rassmann

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Defensive Architecture in Crete in Late/Final Neolithic and Bronze Age
Tomas Alusik

The early Bronze Age settlement of Rybnik near Levice (Southwest Slovakia)
Jozef Bátor, Knut Rassmann

From the village to the fortified urban settlement: the case of Poliochni on Lemnos (Greece) in the 3rd Millennium BC
Massimo Cultraro

Pudliszki - the verification of an old hypothesis
Janusz Czebreszuk, Mateusz Jaeger, Johannes Müller
10.30-11.00 Coffee

Fortified settlement in Bruszczewo. Current stage of interpretation
Janusz Czebreszuk, Johannes Müller

Middle Bronze Age fortified settlements in North-Western part of Romania
G. Fazecas

Early Bronze Age Fortified Settlements at Trzcinica (District of Jasło), site 1
Jan Gancarski

The Late Bronze age fortified settlement from Suncuius
Calin Ghemis

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

Fortified Bronze Age Tell Settlements within the Carpathian Basin
Florin Gogâltan, Emese Apai

"It is not the walls that make the city": fortified and unfortified settlements in the 3rd mill. BC eastern Balkans
Mariya Ivanova

The Middle Eneolithic fortified settlements in Bohemia
Jan John

Bruszczewo: The Fortification next to the lake
Jutta Kneisel

15.30-16.00 Coffee

Bronze Age hillforts in the Alps
Rüdiger Krause

Perspectives of the Defence Structures in Austria in the 3rd and 2nd Millennia BC
Alexandra Krenn-Leeb

Remarks on probable defence structure at Radłowice in Silesia
Irena Lasak, Miroslaw Furmanek

Defence settlements from the Early Bronze Age in the area of Central Europe
Szymon Nowacki

Friday all day, Main Hall Room: 8

Session Title: Beyond Types, Composition and Production Techniques: what insights can studying metal provide into the social dynamics of prehistoric communities in Europe?

Organizers: Tobias Kienlin, Bénédicte Quilliec, Ben Roberts
Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Metal sources, metal trade, weight units, workshops, religion: which system of political and economic structures existed behind the phenomena accessible to archaeologists?

Jan Bouzek

Forging the Axes: Implications of Metallography for the Organization of Early Bronze Age Metalworking

Tobias L. Kienlin

The Bronze-maker and his networks

Peter Northover

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Metals and the Late Bronze Age exchange network of Aegean-type products

Andrea Vianello

To decorate or not to decorate? That is the question

Shaun Moyler

Thinking through technology: an experimental approach to the cognition of prehistoric copper working

Julia Wiecken

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

Fields and funerals. Cultivation and Iron Making on Gotland during the Early Iron Age

Anna Arnberg

Iron production in southeast Norway

Status and potentials for obtaining knowledge from a mass material

Bernt Rundberget

To show or to hide metallic weapons?

Bénédicte Quilliec

15.30-16.00 Coffee

“Doing agency” in Early Bronze Age British archaeometallurgy. A brief exploration of the practicalities of combining archaeometric datasets with social theory

Peter Bray

Cultural Transmission and Material Transformation: analysing the ‘spread’ of metal in Western Europe

Ben Roberts

Tracing the Tools: Transmission of Metallurgical Knowledge in Migration Period Scandinavia

Nancy L. Wicker
Friday all day, Main Hall Room: 9

Session Title: Sacralia Ruthenica - Archaeology about the Christianisation of Eastern Europe (10th - 13th Century)

Organizers: Mirosław P. Kruk, Aleksandra Sulikowska-Gąska, Marcin Wołoszyn

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Byzantine and Russian Devotional Articles in the Collections of the National Museum in Kraków and the National Museum in Warsaw
Mirosław P. Kruk, Aleksandra Sulikowska-Gąska, Marcin Wołoszyn

Between religion and politics - tradition of "cross kissing" in the Kievan Rus – selected problems (10th - 12th century)
Grzegorz Rostkowski

Historical Truth Versus Archaeological Reality. Two Perspectives on the Monza Reliquary
Jörn Staecker

Change in Faith or Shift in Culture? Christianity and Christianisation in the Archaeology of Europe
Alexander Musin

Arms and Christianisation. The Motif of the Cross on the Early Medieval Weapons – Selected Problems (Poster)
Tomasz Kurasiński

10.30-11.00 Coffee

On the Dating of Some Types of Pectoral Crosses During the Middle Ages in Bulgaria
Lyudmila Doncheva-Petkova

Cross Encolpia from Odessos-Varna as Proof for the Byzantium-Kiev Rus’ Relations in the 11th-12th c.
Anna Haralambieva

Byzantine-type Reliquary Pectoral Crosses in South-East Hungary
Imre Szatmári

Pectoral Crosses in Bohemia in their Context and the question of the Opočnice hoard
Kateřina Horničková

Old – Russian Encolpia with the Image of Enthroned Theotokos and Their Byzantine Prototypes
Svetlana V. Gnutova

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

Medieval Devotional Articles from Belarus in the Context of European Pilgrimages
Aleksander Baškow

Sacral Byzantine Objects from the Territory of Belarus
Kristina Lavish
The Image of Sacred Cross in the Sign System of the Grand Duke’s Costume in the Territory of Belarus between the 10th and 15th Centuries (Poster)
Hanna Barvenava

Early Medieval Devotional Articles from Zvenigorod (Ukraine)
Viera Hupalo

Devotional Articles from the 17th and 18th Century Noblemen’s Graves from a Post-Bernadine Church in Dubno (Ukraine) (Poster)
Viera Hupalo

15.30-16.00 Coffee

Crosses from the Great Barrows in Podhorce in western Ukraine (Poster)
Radosław Liwoch

Encolpia from the “Horodyszcze” Stronghold in Trepcza, Nearby Sanok
Jerzy Ginalska

Religious symbols or jewels – cross finds at the early medieval cemeteries in Danilowo Małe, district Białystok (Poster)
Dariusz Krasnodębski

Russian Devotional Objects from North-East Poland Discovered in Graves (11th -13th Centuries)
Arkadiusz Koperkiewicz

“Boris and Gleb” Type Encolpion from Czulczyce, Sawin gmina, Lublin Voivodship (Poster)
Tomasz Dzierkówski, Marcin Wołoszyn

Gem from Przemyśl – Antique Influences and Christian motifs
Grażyna Bąkowska

Archaeology About Personal Piety on Polish Lands at the End of the Middle Ages
Barbara Chudzińska

Saturday 23 September

Saturday all day, Main Hall Room: 1

Session Title: Neolithisation as if history mattered
Organizer: Håkon Glørstad

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Becoming Neolithic in Southern Britain
Nick Thorpe
Tasks, Transformations, and Transitions: The transition from hunting and gathering to farming in the northern Irish Sea basin

Hannah Cobb

10.30-11.00 Coffee

The Neolitisation in SW-Norway – a result of local ecological conditions as well as social and cultural influences

Lisbeth Prøsch-Danielsen, Mari Høgestøl

History in prehistory – the latter Neolithic/Early metal Age period as history

Christopher Prescott

The Northern Province? – The Neolithisation of Eastern Norway

Håkon Glerstad

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

Late hunter-gatherer and early farmer contacts on the southern Baltic – a critical review

J. Kabacinski, Th. Terberger

Neolithisation as if history mattered – or vice versa: The Younger Stone Age in northern Fennoscandia

Marianne Skander

Stone Age Transitions- Social memory in cultural reproduction and change

Helena Knutsson, Kjel Knutsson

The concept of Neolithisation - Processual remains in a Postmodern World?

Håkan Petersson

Discussion and Closing Comments

Christopher Prescott

Saturday all day, Main Hall Room: 2

Session Title: Flint Mining in Prehistoric Europe: Interpreting the Archaeological Records

Organizers: Pierre Allard, Françoise Bostyn, François Giligny, Jacek Lech

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Ideology and Context with The European Flint Mining Tradition

Paul Wheeler
“Hidden in Heaps By Their Kennels”: Do We Really Know Why Was Flint Extracted From The Neolithic ‘Flint Mines’ of Central Southern Britain?
Miles Russell

The Early Neolithic Flint Mine of ‘Casa Montero’ (Madrid, Spain)
Marta Capote, Nuria Castañeda, Susana Consuegra, Cristina Criado, Pedro Díaz-Del-Río

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Flint Extraction and Processing in the North-East of Scotland in the Later Neolithic Period
Alan Saville

Open-Cast Flint Mining, Very Long Blade Production and Long-Distance Exchange: An Example from Bulgaria
Laurence Manolakakis

Flint Mining off the Danubian Communities in The Ojców Jura near Cracow
Jacek Lech

12.30-14.00 Lunch

Remarks On The Prehistoric Flint Mine Site At Spiennes (Belgium) on the Occasion of its Discovery 140 Years ago
Hélène Collet, Anne Hauzeur, Jacek Lech

Surplus Production in the Belgian Linearbandkeramik: the Flint Workshops of Verlaine
Pierre Allard, Laurence Burnez-Lanotte

L'extraction Intensive Des Minéraux Non Métalliques À La Protohistoire Ancienne Dans La Moltié Nord de L'Europe
Yoann Gauvry

A New Flint Mine in the Paris Basin: Flins-Sur-Seine/Aubergenville and the Mauldre River Complex
Françoise Bostyn, François Giligny

Saturday all day, Main Hall Room: 3

Session Title: European Perishables: Exploring the Potential of an Invisible Material Culture
Organizers: Mary Ann Owoc, Linda Hurcombe
Discussant: Lise Bender Jorgenson

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

European Perishables: Techniques, Interpretations and Results
Mary Ann Owoc, Linda Hurcombe
Centre for Textile Research in Copenhagen: Archaeology of Textiles and Textiles in Archaeology
Margarita Gleba

Tips and Tricks for Perishable Impression Casting, Perishable Analysis, and Perishable Conservation
Jeff Illingworth

Looking for organic material culture via the evidence from inorganic remains
Linda Hurcombe, Linda Lemieux

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Experimenting with Baskets: A Series of Nut Storage Experiments Exploring a Potential Use of Baskets in Prehistory
Penny Cunningham

Experimental and Ethnographic Approaches to the Study of Perishables: Case Studies of Hide Drums and Shoe Hay
Lynda Aiano

Social Stories in Clay: Perishable Impressions from the Isles of Scilly, UK
Mary Ann Owoc, Kelly Manske

Discovering Textile Finds and Textile Tools North of the Middle Danube Area
Tereza Belanová

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

Baskets and Ropes on a Greek Ship (6th Century, B.C.E.) Found in the Bay of Pollensa (Malloca, Spain)
Carmen Alfaro

Early Medieval Silk Textiles from Kaldus and Gruczno, Northern Poland: Implications for Trade and Community Interaction
Małgorzata Grupa

Materiality at the edge: Perishables from marginal living in early medieval Europe c. 400-1100 AD
Helene McNeill

Pre-Hispanic Caribbean Cotton
Joanna Ostapkowicz

Saturday all day, Main Hall Room: 4

Session Title: ‘Building Bridges With The Past: The Significance of Memory and Tradition In The Genesis And Transmission Of Culture’

Organizers: Chrysanthi Gallou, Mercourios Georgiadis

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction
Material Identity – Archaeology and the Creation of Cultural Identity
Charlotta Hillerdal

With Hitler in Valhalla. Modern Swedish Right-Wing Extremism and the Use of the Past
Felicia Markus

Eleni Stefanou

“Rock Art, Landscape And Social Memory”
Melanie Wrigglesworth

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Biography And Material Tradition: Building Cairns In The Kilmartin Glen Philip Richardson

The Hill of Senhora Da Graça (Mondim De Basto, Norte De Portugal) as a Site of Memory throughout the Centuries
Antonio Pereira Dinis

Living In The Mountains: Arkadian Identity In The Classical Period
James Roy

Athletics and the Formation of Female Identity in Ancient Sparta
Pantelis Konstantinakos, Metaxia Papapostolou

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

Landscapes of Death and Memory in Mycenaean Greece
Chrysanthi Gallou

The Role of Tradition in Burials in Late Bronze Age Eastern Anatolia
Mercourios Georgiadis

Being an Immigrant: Memories, Practice and Identity. A Case Study
Magdalena Naum

Cremation Cemeteries under Level Ground - Monuments over the Ancestors and the Collective Memory
Anna Wickholm

Saturday all day, Main Hall Room: 5

Session Title: Continuity or Change? Working through Neolithic landscapes

Organizers: Nicki J. Whitehouse, Rick Schulting
Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Chair: Rick Schulting

Of cattle, mice and men: tracing the first domesticates and commensals along the Neolithic danubian routes
Adrian Balasescu, Thomas Cucchi, Lenka Kovacikova, René Kysely Valentin Radu, Anne Tresset

Two peas in a pod? A social perspective on identity, daily life and material culture of the early LBK
Alena Lukes

Working Neolithic Landscapes in the Polish Lowlands
Peter Bogucki

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Settlement and eco-dynamics in Neolithic and Bronze Age Ireland
Nicki Whitehouse, John O'Neill, Gill Plunkett

Alternative continuities? Challenging change in the Early Neolithic of Dorset
Oliver Harris

Neolithic landscapes in the Humberhead Levels: assessing relationships between domestic, ritual and environmental change
Henry Chapman, Ben Gearey

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

Chair: Nicki Whitehouse

Food-ways in the Neolithic of Britain
Rick Schulting

The role of animal fodder in the subsistence economy of Neolithic lake shore settlements in the Alpine range and its palaeoecological implications
Marlu Kühn, Stefanie Jacomet, Lucia Wick

Animals, architectures, and changing human-animal relationships in Neolithic Cotswold-Severn long barrow sites
Lesley McFadyen, Richard Thomas

Continuity or Change in the Neolithic Landscape of the Nene Valley, Central England?
Tony Brown, Phil Allen, Ian Meadows, Karen Deighton

Working stone, linking arenas and actions of Neolithic life
Gabriel Cooney
Saturday all day, Main Hall Room: 6

Session Title: Current Research and Education in Underwater and Maritime Archaeology

Organizers: Andrzej Pydyn, Joe Flatman

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Partnerships in Nautical Archaeology: Case Studies from North Carolina and Alaska
Timothy J. Runyan

Maritime Archaeology: Education, Advocacy and International Development
Colin Breen

Maritime Archaeology at the Norwegian University of Science and Technology
Marek Jasinski

Broadening the Picture: New Challenges and Perspectives in Underwater and Maritime Archaeology in Poland
Andrzej Pydyn

Advances in Maritime Archaeology and the University of Southern Denmark
Thijs Maarleveld

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Looking Back to a Decade of Teaching Ship Archaeology in Germany
Timm Weski

Education in Maritime and Underwater Archaeology at the University of Kiel
Sunhild Kleingartner

Maritime Archaeology in Estonia
Kristin Ilves

Education and Training Programmes in Underwater Archaeology at National Taras Sevchenko University of Kiev
Yana Morozova

Collaboration is the Key: Developing Field and Work Skills in Collaboration with Government, Museum and Commercial Underwater Cultural Heritage Organisations
Mark Staniforth

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

Maritime Archaeology and Bournemouth University
David Parham

Dig! Places: Blending Creative Writing and Archaeology
Joe Flatman
Preserves, Programs, and the Public Archaeology Network: Promoting and Protecting Submerged Cultural Resources in Florida
_Della Scott-Ireton_

Port Meadow, Oxford, UK: Investigation and Reburial of an Eroding River-Boat in the Context of the Geoarchaeology and Social History of a Major Navigable Waterway
_Brian Durham_

The NAS and International Collaboration in Maritime Archaeology
_Mark Beattie-Edwards_

---

Saturday all day, Main Hall Room: 7

Session Title: Geographies of Power: Administrative, Political and Royal landscapes in the early medieval world

Organisers: Alex Sanmark, Sarah Semple

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

The archaeology of frontiers and boundaries
_Mike McCarthy_

Political landscapes in late Iron Age Iceland
_Adolf Friðriksson_

Political landscapes and power centres in early medieval England and Europe
_Sarah Semple_

Reconstructing regions through digitally modelled landscapes
_Daniel Löwenborg_

---

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Assembly sites and royal routes in Viking and early medieval Sweden
_Alex Sanmark_

Consilium and convento: political practice in early medieval Scandinavia
_Svante Norr_

Gold figurines and glass beakers. Lunda – a central place of religious significance
_Eva Skjllberg_

Lunda - the tenant farm, the watermill and the townyard
_Lena Beronius Jörpeland_

---

12.30 -14.00 Lunch
Between the strongholds in Poznań and Giecz. Noble estate in Krzyżowniki, Poland
Monika Kwiatkowska

From Princely Graves to Wooden Tower Houses - symbols of power in the landscape of Western Poland
Adriana Ciesielska

The women at Valsgärde: their life and burials
Anne-Sofie Gräslund

Power in the shadow of power: The chieftain's farm of Valsgärde, Gamla Uppsala parish, Sweden
Anneli Sundkvist

Saturday all day, Main Hall Room: 8

Session Title: European Egyptologists Gaze The Future
Organizers: Amanda-Alice Maravelia, Galina A. Belova

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Small Objects from the Temple Deposits at Tell Ibrahim Awad, Egypt
Tatjana A. Sherkova

A Stelophorous Statuette of an Adorer with a Hymn to the Solar God Re
Amanda-Alice Maravelia

Naos of the Decades
Anne-Sophie Goddio-von Bomhard

10.30-11.00 Coffee

The Enigma of the Cities of Heracleion and Thonis Revealed
Franck Goddio

Archaeological Researches at Kom Tuman (Memphis) in 2005-2006
Galina A. Belova

Column Bases from Kom Tuman (Memphis)
Alexi A. Krol

Studies of Ancient Egyptian Footwear: Technological Aspects
Part III: Leather-Reinforced Fibre Sandals from Qasr Ibrim
André J. Veldmeijer

12.30-14.00 Lunch

Leather-Work in Egypt at c. 1000 BCE
Edward Loring
A Bronze Figurine of a Priestess from the Mit-Rahina Bronze Hoard
Sergej V. Ivanov

Studies of the Seaworthiness and Maneuverability of the Egyptian Sea-going Vessels of the New Kingdom
Alexander Belov

A Child’s Woolen Tunic from Byzantine Egypt
Sophia Tsourinaki

Saturday all day, Main Hall Room: 9

Session Title: Bronze and Iron Age strongholds in Central and Southeast Europe, new results

Organizers: Louis D. Nebelsick, Carola Metzner-Nebelsick
Speaker: Wiesław Zajączkowski

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Strongholds in the second and first millennium BC

Once upon a ‘Heidenschanze’ – Writing a History of Early Silesian Hillfort Archaeology
Karin Reichenbach

Jívová – Tepenec, Moravian hillfort from the Late Bronze Age
Vendula Vránová

Social transition and spacial organisation: the problem of the end of the strongholts in Northeast Hungary at the beginning of the Early Iron Age
Carola Metzner-Nebelsick

“Research on the Margins, approaching the Peripheries of fortified Sites in Western Bohemia”
Libor Janíček, Ricky Kubicek

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Elites and the Landscape: Hallstatt Strongholds in Central Europe

Early Iron Age strongholds in Great Poland: recent research on their date and internal organisation
Anthony F. Harding

“Milejowice site 19, Wroclaw district – a recently discovered settlement partly fenced with palisade-like constructions and its importance for the study of Hallstatt period society in the south-west region of Poland”
Ewa Bugaj

“The Polish-German Stronghold Project, new perspectives on Late Bronze Age and Early Iron Age Strongholds East and West of The Odra-Nysa Corridor”
Zbigniew Kobylński, Louis D. Nebelsick
The Power and the Glory: Hillforts, Monumentality and Early Iron Age Elites in Central Slovenia
Phil Mason

“Recent excavations and research on the Mont Lassois near Vix in Burgundy, results of the Institut für Ur- und Frühgeschichte Kiel”
Angela Mötsch

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

On the Brink of History: Strongholds of the Late Hallstatt and Latène Periods
Iron Age Strongholds and their Environ. The South-Bohemian Perspective
Dagmar Dreslerová, Alžběta Danielisová

La Tène Culture hilltop settlement on the Oberleiserberg in Lower Austria. Recent excavations
Maciej Karwowski

“Iron Age Hillforts in Transdanubia (Western Hungary) new results on an old topic”
Erzsébet Jerem

Saturday all day, Main Hall Room: 10

Session Title: The Unquiet Past: Cultural Heritage and the Uncertain Social Geography of Risks of Exposure to Ecological Hazards and Political Violence

Organizers: John Carman, Stephanie Koerner
Discussant: Tim Darvill

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction
Reflective approaches to Field Research and Problems generated by the ‘Expert – Public’ Divide in Archaeologies of Cultural Heritage
John Barrett

Coming full circle: public archaeology as liberal social programme, then and now
John Carman

Doku-porn: visualising stratigraphy.
Geoff Carver

The terms “risk” and “uncertainty” as component of social reality construction based on the archaeological paradigm
Ulf F. Ickerodt

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Geographies of value
Gail Higginbottom, Philip Tonner

Let’s not go to the dogs tonight. Rhetoric as a strategy of accountability in archaeological outreach
Bo Jensen
The Unquiet Past and Spaces where Reasons Matter. Biological Hazard, Sustainable Development and Archaeology in Northwestern England
Stephanie Koerner, Lorna Singleton

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

Doing Archaeology in the Risk Environment: Beyond "Epistemic-Ontological Precaution"
Koji Mizoguchi

The Shifting Place of the ‘War of All-Against-All’ and Other Paradoxes of Major Paradigms for ‘World Heritage’
Laurent Olivier

Nostalgic Futurism, Conflicting Temporalities and Archaeological Epistemic Conflict
Ian Russell

Anthropomorphic Pictural Conventions and Cultural Heritage in Precolumbian Central Andean Tiahuanaco
Mathieu Viau-Courville

Archaeology on the Western Front: A European Perspective
Ross J. Wilson

Saturday all day, Main Hall Room: 12

Session Title: The Site and the Community
Organizer: Andrzej Pelisiak

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Settlement differentiation of Magdalenian culture in central Europe
Marta Połtowicz

Symbolic and “supposed” graves in the settlements of the Linearbandkeramic culture in south eastern Poland
Aleksander Dzbyński, Maciej Dębiec

Central Europian and Balkan Culture Contacts in the Volhyn and Upper Dniester Territory in IV-III Millennums B.C. as Dialogue of Cultures
Taras Tkachuk

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Funnel Beakers Culture economy and natural environment in The Western Carpathians Mountains
Renata Zych

The spatial organization of the Funnel Beaker settlement in the Gostynin Lake District
Małgorzata Rybicka
The Structures with Traditions of Corded Ware Culture on the Territory of Southern Belarus: the Results and New Aspects of the Research
Mikolaj Kryvaltsevich

12.30 - 14.00 Lunch

Good Neighbours? Houses, fences and spatial organization on early iron age sites in eastern middle Sweden
Susanna Eklund, Anna Onsten-Molander

What has been left? Traces of social organisation in the Roman Period archaeological material from the area of central Poland
Justyn Skowron

Settlement and Society of Funnel Beaker Culture in Central Poland
Andrzej Pelisiak

Settlement-, environmental- and landscape archaeology in Eastern Central Europe between anglo-american influence and communist ideology
Grietje Suhr

Saturday all day, Restaurant Room: B

Session Title: The history of archaeological practice – reflections on technology and social organisation in field work

Organizers: Åsa Gillberg, Ola W. Jensen
Discussant: Jarl Nordbladh

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Archaeological Practices in the Early Modern Period
Dietrich Hakelberg

“To ransack the wall would give trouble and would waste time” - Hillfort Archaeology in Saxony in the 19th century
Susanne Grunwald

Amazing Graves. Why practices differed in German 19th century digging
Gisela Eberhardt

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Title not available
Frauke Kreienbrink

Processes of professionalisation and marginalisation: a constructivist study of archaeological field practices in Sweden 1870-1910, part I
Ola W. Jensen
Processes of professionalisation and marginalisation: a constructivist study of archaeological field practices in Sweden 1870-1910, part II
Asa Gillberg

Excavating an Identity: British fieldwork in the first half of the twentieth century
Julia Roberts

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

The history of archeology in Champagne (France): goals, methodology, techniques and means
Jan Vermoerkerke

The international context of fieldwork: information from the archive
Margarita Díaz-Andreu

Working at archaeology: manual labour and archaeological knowledge
Nathan Schlanger

Feminism in post-colonial practice?
Elisabeth Arwill-Nordbladh

Saturday all day, Restaurant Room: C

Session Title: European Anthropological Spaces. Archaeology vs. Anthropology?

Organizers: G. Dimitriadis, D. Gheorghiu

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Nature’s chaos and cultural order: The Mandala Tells and the Lower Danube landscape
D. Gheorghiu

From the “Natural” Forest to the Forest of Signs. The Production of Rock Art and the Management of Space by EBA Societies
G. Dimitriadis

Between Anthropology, History and Prehistory
A. Guerci

10.30-11.00 Coffee

La Liguria occidentale et la circulation du métaux dans le Bronze Final des Alpes de l’ouest; l’intérêt des métallurgistes pour le territoire de la montagne
G. Dimitriadis, D. Delfino

Light at the end of the passage: The way Megalithic art was viewed and experienced
G. Nash
The Connection Between the Terrestrial and Celestial Landscape during the Bronze Age in the Carpathian Basin (Orientation of Houses)

E. Pàzstor

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

Remote Sensing as a tool for palaeo-geographic reconstructions: the Sarcidano – Barbagia di Seulo area, Province of Cagliari, central Sardinia

M. G. Gradoli, M. T. Melis

The Cultural Nature of Natural Places in the Alps

F. Nicolis

Saturday all day, Sports Hall Room: D

Session Title: The Archaeology and Archaeoprospection of Large Rivers and River Confluences

Organizer: A. G. Brown

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

The Bova Marina Archaeological Project: the geoarchaeological investigation of the San Pasquale River Valley, Calabria, Italy

G. Ayala, E. Reinhardt, J. Robb, L. Foxhall

Predictive modelling of multi-period geoarchaeological resources at a river confluence: The geoprospection of geoarchaeological resources

Holocene relict alluvium and colluvium in Belgium, Luxembourg and Northern France. The current state of research.

K. Fechner, R. Baes, G. Louwagie
in collaboration with : L. Deschodt, R. Langohr, A. Gebhardt, B. Bécu,

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Settlement history and changes of the natural processes in the main valleys of Carpathian Foreland: case studies from the Targowisko site in Raba valley (southern Poland)

Tomasz Kalicki, Beata Grabowska, Jacek Górski, Elwira Izdebska, Bartłomiej Konieczny, Siarhei Sauchyk, Galina Simakova, Jarosław Wilczyński, Michał Wojenka, Valentina Zernitskaya

Processes of archaeological site formation in alluvial settings of the Midwestern region, USA: a geoarchaeological framework

William G. Monaghan

Late Quaternary river environments and archaeological prospection in the Till-Tweed basin, northern England

David G. Passmore, Clive Waddington, Tim van der Schriek
12.30 -14.00 Lunch

An assessment of the effectiveness of Geophysical Techniques in the East Midlands Region, England
Alastair Macintosh, David Knight, Mark Pearce

The Valleys of the Large Rivers as a Centre of Settlement in the Late Bronze Age Pontic Steppe Landscape
Magda Pieniążek-Sikora

A geoarchaeological approach to managing Neolithic archaeology in a river valley setting: A case study from northern England
Clive Waddington, David G. Passmore

Large palaeorivers and floodplains as archaeological landscapes
A. G. Brown, L. Basell

General sessions

Friday morning, Restaurant Room: A

Session Title: General Session: Stone Age

Chair: Peter Biehl

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Remarks on the chronological position of the Szeletian in the Bükk Mountains
György Lengyel, Zsolt Mester

Lost on Ignition: Identifying Hunter-Gatherer Domestic Fire Technology in the Southern British Mesolithic
Paul N. Backhouse

Reading the past through the Levantine Rock Art scenes: relevant thematic and stylistic changes as a reflex of cultural dynamics in the Spanish Mediterranean region
Esther López-Montalvo

Mid-Atlantic Super-Long Distance Obsidian Exchange: Provenance and Provenience
Carolyn D. Dillian, Charles A. Bello, M. Steven Shackley

10.30-11.00 Coffee

The Battle Axe Culture Pottery of South Sweden
Ole Stilborg

A Neolithic, Bronze Age and Post Roman settlement site at Milfield, Northumberland (UK), in its Landscape Context
Clive Waddington
Dating a multi-period settlement site at Milfield, Northumberland (UK) (Poster)
Ben Jonson

Special foods, special places and ordinary people: A glimpse into the life of Bronze Age hunter-gatherers on Lake Baikal, Siberia
Andrzej Weber

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

Saturday all day, Restaurant Room: A

Session Title: General Session: Bronze & Iron Age
Chair: Diana Gergova

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

Beyond Stonehenge: Seeking The Start of the Bluestone Trail
Timothy Darvill

The Disappearing Children: Burial and Childhood in South Scandinavia During 2300-500 BC
Sophie Bergerbrant

Lusatian Pottery: Workshop Features in SEM/EDS and Statistical Analysis
Adam Walanus, Joanna Trąbska, Urszula Kobylińska

Pots in Action: Pottery in Central Sweden During the Transition Between the Bronze and the Iron Age
Thomas Eriksson

10.30-11.00 Coffee

Continuity and Change at Sommarange Skod – a Bronze Age Ritual Site
Helena Victor

Archaeology and Material Culture: Interpreting the Archaeological Record
Neculai Bolohan

Late Bronze Age - Early Iron Age Relationships Across The Carpathians
Attila László

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

Gender, Agency and Status in the Early Iron Age in Latium Vetus. Investigating Past Identities Though The Analysis of Burial Evidence
Francesca Fulminante

Golden Mascarons in Thracian Burials
Diana Gergova
Sacred Dacian Enclosures And Their Landscape
Valeriu Sîrbu, Dan Ştefan, Duțescu Magdalena

Ritual and Inventory in a Dacian Enclosure in the Carpathian Mountains
Valeriu Sîrbu, Sebastian Matei

15.30-16.00 Coffee

Saturday all day Main Hall Room 11
Session Title: Roman Empire and Beyond
Chairs: Halina Dobrzańska, Eric De Sena

Papers

9.00-9.10. Introduction

Roman Pottery in Coastal Etruria: an Archaeological and Archaeometric Approach
Marinella Pasquinucci, Simonetta Menchelli

Roman Maritime Villas in Dalmatia and Istria
Vlasta Begović Dvoržak, Ivana Dvoržak Schrunk

Routes of the Main Roman Roads in Dardania: Comparative Analysis with the Paths of Modern Highways
Vladimir Petrović

Workshops of Luxurious Funerary Monuments from Viminacium (Moesia Superior)
Sanja Pilipović

Attempt at Anthropological Reconstruction of a Roman Time Man from Macedonia (Poster)
Fanica Veljanovska

10.30-11.00 Coffee

The Cult of Venus at Tomis
Zaharia Covacef

The Porolissum Forum Project (2004-2006). Archaeology on the fringes of the Roman Empire
Eric C. De Sena, Alexandru V. Matei

Paradigm of liberty in the Byzantine Empire 4th –7th centuries
Adriana Claudia Cîteia

12.30 -14.00 Lunch
Early Christian Roman Imports in the Territory of the Central Balkan Between the 4th and 6th Centuries
Olivera Ilić

Western Germanic Tribes and Romanisation of the Barbaricum
Artur Błażejewski

Graves of “Princes” on the Przeworsk Culture Cemetery at Szarbia (Southern Poland)
Ryszard Naglik

The Carpathian Borrows Culture (III-IV centuries A.D.)
Liana Vakulenko

Pottery Production Centres in European Barbaricum: Interdisciplinary Research Project Zofipole (Southern Poland)
Halina Dobrzanska, Andrzej Kielski, Krystyna Wodnicka

Weapons of the Barbarous Population of Central and South-Western Crimea of the Sarmatian Period (Poster)
Kirill Firsov

Friday all day, Main Hall Room: 3

Session Title: General Session: Medieval & Historical Archaeology
Chair: Hanna Kóčka-Krenz

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction
Byelorussian territory in the Migration Period
Vadim Shadyra

The beginnings of the development of the Prague culture on the territory of Belarus
Valiantsina Viarhei

Weaving technologies in migration: evidence of entwined cultures from female inhumations in northern and central Europe of the mid first millennium AD
Sue Harrington

10.30-11.00 Coffee

The historical and cultural contacts between Polatsk Land and Scandinavian countries during the Viking Age (according to the archeological data)
Siarhei Dziarnovich

No Man is an Island – on causes and effects in the creation of ethnicities and archaeological identities of the past
Nanouschka Myrberg

The Old-Russian costume: reconstruction on the basis of an archaeological data in the Upper Volga area
Yulia Stepanova

Village settlements of Polatsk region in 10 - middle 16th centuries
Marat Vasiljevich Klimau
Materialschlacht: An ethnographic study of the Western Front
Ross J. Wilson

Private and rural houses of the French Atlantic Coast (near Nantes and Saint-Nazaire) from the end of the Celtic period until the Middle Ages: the contribution of the rescue archaeology
Christophe Devals

The hunting of moose in pitfall trap systems during the Medieval period in Gråfjell, South-east Norway
Tina Amundsen

The castle of Hlusk in the 16th c.: interpretation of the archaeological data in the light of written sources
Iryna Hanetskaya

15.30-16.00 Coffee

The Castle in Tykocin at the Polish-Lithuanian Border
Magdalena Bis

Life and Death in the Post-Medieval Parish of St Benet Sherehog
Lynne Cowal

Recording and Analysis of the Russian Orthodox (Native Aleut) and Public Cemetery, Unalaska Island, Alaska
Charles A. Bello

Friday morning, Restaurant Room: B

Session Title: General Session: Culture Heritage and Modern Information Technology

Chair: Włodzimierz Rączkowski

Papers

9.00-9.10 Introduction

The branding of Minoan archaeology
Anna Simandiraki

Values in the Historic Landscape and of the Cultural Heritage
Karin Beckman-Thoor

Post-Excavation Management and Interpretation: the Augustinian Priory at Kells
Miriam Clyne

10.30-11.00 Coffee
Applications of web-technologies in archaeology: perspectives and problems
Nikolas Papadimitriou, David Kenny

Spreading the W.O.R.D
Jelena Bekvalac

How to tell the story. Archaeology and Cultural Heritage in the Age of Internet
Ingvild Solberg Andreassen

Teaching archaeology and the Internet: methods and services developed at Humbul to facilitate a difficult relationship
Andrea Vianello

12.30 -14.00 Lunch

Poster session

Thursday all day, Sports Hall

Landscape setting and orientation symbolism of earlier Neolithic linear domestic and funerary constructions in central and northwest Europe
Willy Adam

Settlement of Communities of the Linear Band Pottery Culture on the Upper Vistula River Basin
Agnieszka Czekaj-Zastawny

Linear Pottery Settlement Structure in North-West Bohemia, Czech Republic (study of socio-economic dynamics in microregions)
Ales Kacerik

The Neolithic Hoards from Poland
Marta Kaflińska

Mineralogical Examination of Neolithic Pottery (Linear Band Pottery Culture) from Southern Poland
Anna Rauba-Bukowska

Neolithic Anthropomorphic and Zoomorphic Plastics From Zakrzowiec, Site 6, Niepołomice Commune, Małopolskie Voivodship
Paweł Jarosz

Geoarchaeological Studies on the Neolithic Megalith at Newgrange, Ireland
Ian G. Meighan, Barrie N. Hartwell, Anthony E. Fallick and Derek D. A. Simpson

Method for studying multilayered sites
An example: Ároktő-Dongóhalom Bronze Age site
Pusztainé Fischl Klára

Animal Husbandry and Organised Grazing. Animals, people and landscape in western Östergötland during the Late Bronze Age and Early Iron Age
Maria Petersson

Funerary discoveries form the Alburnus Maior site (Roșia Montană, Alba county, Romania)
Mihaela Simion, Cătălina Neagu
Beyond the Tribal Hidage - early state formation in post Roman Britain
Sue Harrington

GIS and the archaeological sites in different landscapes of medieval Caucasus
V. Kovalevskaya, Z. Tsarikaeva

Chersones Taurica - one of the most important center of maritime trade of the Pontis Euxine in the Ancient and Medieval periods
Julia A. Pronina

Ancient and Medieval anchors from the underwater archaeological investigations in the water area of Sebastopol
Victor V. Lebedinski

Site Tölö - the first remains of an Early Medieval wooden stave church on the Western coast of Sweden
Petra Nordin

Stoneware vessels
Grażyna Nawrolska

Archeological Research of Medieval Market Town-Mohi
Reconstruction of Mohi medieval market town with GIS methods
Pusztai Tamás

Aerial Archaeology in Flanders (Belgium)
Marc Lodewijckx, Jean Bourgeois, Marc Meganck, Rene Pelegrin, Jacques Semey

Usage of Luminescence in Dating in Archaeological Material
Niyazi Meriç, Mehmet Koşal, M. Altay Atlıhan

Phenomenon of clay
Lena Angelkoska

Zooarchaeology in Serbia: Considerations on the Recent Scientific Researches
Gajja Zokić

Zooarchaeology and taphonomy. A example: in one pampean fortlet (Fortlet Otamendi (1858-1869). Argentine.
Aurora Oliva, Aurora Benito

The adventure of interpretation
Anita Synnestvedt

LAST UPDATED ON SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 2006