Carers NI

Carers NI aims to make life better for carers by:

- Providing expert advice, information and support.
- Connecting carers so no one has to care alone.
- Campaigning together for lasting change.
- Innovating to find new ways to reach support and carers.

Carers Co-Ordinator NI

As a carer, the first step towards getting advice and support is to contact the carer co-ordinator in the Health and Social Care (HSC) Trust area that the person you care for lives in. They can provide you with information on a carer's assessment or a carer's support plan meeting if you have not already been offered this. Contact details are below:
