

Interview Guide

Introduction (stated verbatim)	Hello this is Florence Findlay-White. Thank you for consenting to take part in this interview. This interview will last no longer than 60 minutes. Could you remind me when you completed the course? What is your professional discipline? How many years have you been in practice or were you in practice if you are now retired? For confidentiality reasons I am not going to address you by name during the recording.
Experience as a professional during and after the course.	Could you tell me a bit more about your experiences of the course and the impact of those experiences for you as a professional? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • At a personal level within your professional life? • With patients? • With colleagues? What was your experiencing of listening to a patient prior to empowerment education and how has that changed? What aspects of the educational process influenced the changes you describe? Please describe your most vivid experience of the course. Could you give me an example that exemplifies this experience? How does your practice compare now to what you were doing before? What has been your experience professionally since completing the education? What challenges have you experienced in implementing this way of working? How long from doing the course did you feel change taking place?
Experience of the course personally outside of the work environment	Could you tell me a bit about your experience of the course? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Personally (outside of the work environment)? • With family? • With friends and / or other relationships?
Closing	Tell me about any unexpected consequences for you - positive or negative? How long from doing the course did you feel change taking place?

--	--